Granary Wharf
Canal Basin,
Leeds

The recently completed renovation of the city's historic canal basin includes the refurbishment of two graving docks for the repair of boats, together with new boater facilities. Grassy banks are interspersed among the benches and newly planted trees making it an ideal place to picnic and watch the world go by.

Wonderwood
Round Foundry estate,
Holbeck Urban Village

Set at the heart of the Round Foundry, Wonderwood is a temporary hybrid of art and park with its own orange tree and a range of herbs to add to lunch-time salads. Enjoy a picnic in one of the colourful deckchairs adorning Wonderwood's perfectly mowed lawn, or find a shady spot in one of the award-winning Round Foundry's courtyards choosing from a range of bars and cafes to quench your thirst. Whatever your preference, the Round Foundry is an ideal place to relax, picnic and meet friends.

The Mint
Sweet Street,
Holbeck Urban Village

At one of the area's newest commercial developments grassy banks offer a quiet sanctuary away from work. Nestled between The Mint's impressive office space and the uber-chic apartments at Manor Mills, is a small but perfectly formed oasis of mowed lawns and granite benches to escape the sights and sounds of the city.

Holbeck Moor
Holbeck Moor Road,
Holbeck

For those looking to enjoy a longer lunch, pick up your picnic and follow the Green Corridor trail into Holbeck. Spread out your blanket on the lawns of Holbeck Moor and admire the handy work of the local Holbeck in Bloom group. If you fancy a weekend picnic this year's Holbeck Gala event takes place on 10th July with a great selection of food stalls to pick up a picnic.

Little Picnics

Available at participating outlets
3rd July — 5th September 2010

Some of the best independent food and drink places are located on the city's southern side. This summer, we want you to come and try the Little Picnics that the participating outlets have put together, and enjoy the changes that are transforming the city's industrial heritage, described by the Yorkshire Evening Post as the 'coolest corner of Leeds'.
